Assumptions: This document assumes that the student ambassador has looked up the student in Starrez and has a basic understanding of the RIT MYlife portal and its services.

1. If students want to move in before their respective move date, direct them to the RIT MyLife portal. Arrival prior to August 18th will result in a charge of $50 per night. The charges will appear on the student services account mid to late September. Early arrival requests are not guaranteed.

Welcome to the myLife Portal

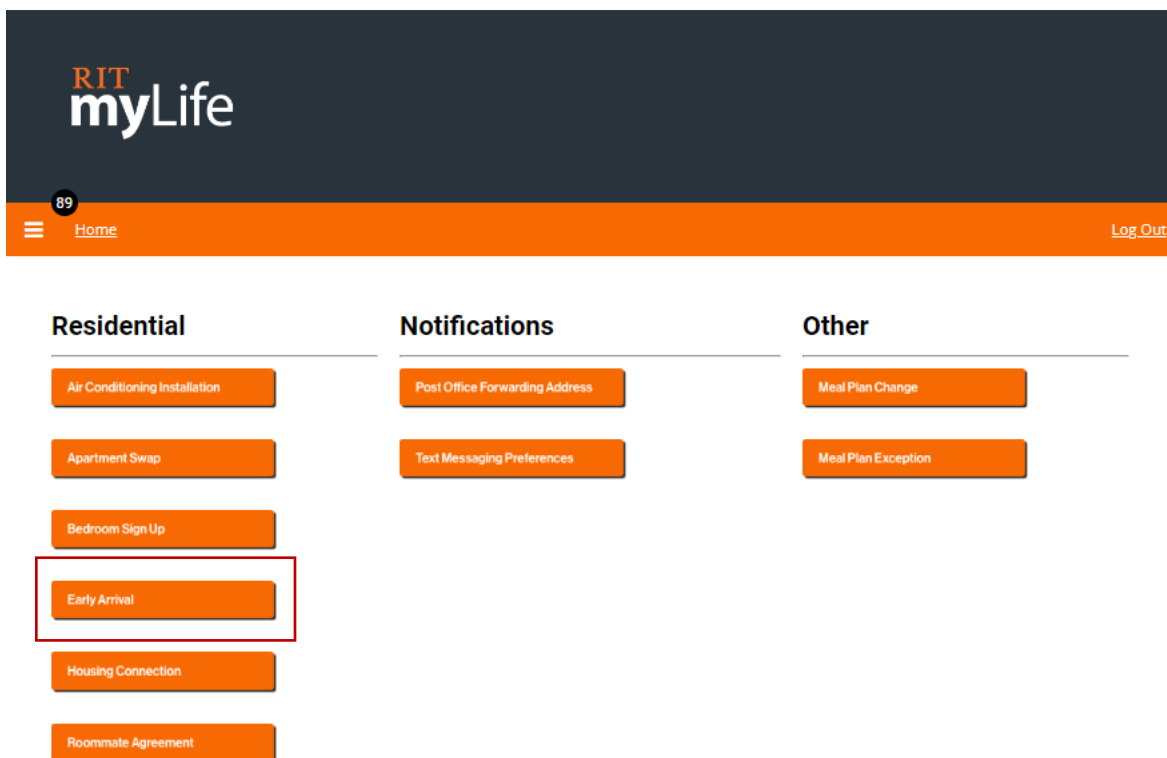

Welcome Nate!

The myLife Portal has multiple applications and forms to assist students with processes related to living and dining on campus, as well as other aspects of student life at RIT.

2. Direct the student to click on the “Forms” tab indicated by the red box in the picture below.

- Click on the “Early Arrival” form on the left-hand side.

4. Confirm that the room shown in the early arrival form is correct. Click “Continue” in the bottom right.

Early Arrival

Incoming Freshman, Incoming Transfers, and Incoming Graduate student Move-In is Sunday, August 18th and Monday, August 19th.

Returning student Move-In is August 20th through August 25th.

If you wish to arrive before the dates listed above, please click Continue to submit the early arrival request.

If you have an early arrival approved with a group and/or as an individual, that date will be reflected on the Early Arrival Request Status page, which can be viewed by clicking Continue and selecting the Next Step.

Any arrival prior to August 18th will result in a $50 per day charge. Charges will be placed on your student account mid to late September.

If you are a part of an early arrival group, the early arrival cost associated with the group will be credited back to your student account. You will be responsible for any early arrival charges that occur outside of the group dates.

Early arrival requests are not guaranteed. You will receive an email to your RIT email account with the status of your request.

- The next page will have a drop-down menu. Have the student select “Early Arrival Request.” Then click on the “continue.”

- In the box, students can select the date they want to arrive on campus. The earliest date a student can choose is 8/1/24. After selecting the date, press “Save and Continue” at the bottom left.

This screenshot shows the 'Early Arrival' form with additional content. On the left, a light gray box contains the following text: 'The earliest date you may pick for an early arrival is 8/1/24.', 'Early arrival requests are not guaranteed. You will receive an email to your RIT email account with the status of your request.', and 'Any arrival prior to August 18th will result in a $50 per day charge. Charges will be placed on your student account mid to late September.' The main form area has a dark blue header with 'Early Arrival' in white. Below this is a section titled 'Early Arrival Date:' with a date picker showing 'Tue, 13 Aug 2024'. At the bottom left is an orange button labeled 'SAVE & CONTINUE'.

7. A confirmation screen says the request has been submitted. If the request is approved, the student will receive an email with the agreed-upon dates and cost. Clicking on home will bring the student back to the MyLife homepage.

8. If the student wishes to check the status of their request after submitting it. Have them repeat steps 1-4 to get to the drop-down menu seen in step 5. Instead of selecting “Early Arrival Request,” have them select “Early Arrival Request Status.” Once selected, press continue.

FAQ

- If a returning student wants to move in on August 18th or 19th, they will need to submit a ticket to Help.rit.edu. If they are approved, arriving on this day will be free.
- There is a charge associated with early arrival requests. The charge will cost $50 per night and be reflected on the student's Eservice account from mid-to-late Stemper.
- To request an early arrival, you must have a reserved RIT room. This means that people on waitlist or no assignment can not request early arrival.
